

FAQ

Who can book Camp Alive '25?

Camp Alive '25 is open exclusively for booking to GGU Brownies, Guides and Rangers until 31st October 2024. From 1st November 2024 any remaining places will be opened to Girlguiding members from the rest of the UK.

What is the cost for participants and what does it include?

The cost for the camp is £325. This includes camping accommodation, catering, a full programme of on-site and offsite activities, all transport and camp merchandise.

What is the cost for Leaders/Volunteers?

GGU is heavily subsidising the leader cost for the camp and have set the price for leaders at £50 which includes camping accommodation, catering, onsite and offsite activities, all transport and camp merchandise.

Can I complete my DofE Gold/Queens Guide Residential at Camp Alive '25?

Yes. We will have an opportunity for members completing these awards to work in service team helping to run the camp which will meet the requirements of the residentials. The cost for this will be £50.

I don't have a Going Away Licence, can my unit come?

Yes, we will be making arrangements for the licences centrally. Advice and help will be provided so even if you are not a regular camper you can still bring your unit.

My unit doesn't have tents, can we still come?

We will have a limited amount of tents available to hire at an additional charge. You can contact us to discuss your requirements.

What are the activities?

Participants will take part in one day of on-site activities at Lorne and then two days off-site – one of these will be a visit to the North Coast and the other is yet to be confirmed – watch this space. There will also be evening activities and an exciting opening and closing ceremony. Expect there to be fun, adventure and a festival atmosphere.

How will the catering work?

This camp is being designed to make it as easy as possible for leaders. Breakfast and lunch will be catered on the subcamps with pack lunch making facilities for the days you are offsite. All dinners will be catered for centrally – no slaving over camp kitchens at Camp Alive! All dietary requirements will be catered for.
