volunteer role

Girlguiding Ulster

CITYSCAPES ADVENTURE

BELFAST 2027

event volunteer

Girlguiding Ulster is delighted to be part of Cityscapes Adventure, a 1-day wide game taking place in 5 cities across the UK. Belfast is a host city, welcoming members from across the country on Saturday 13 March 2027.

Team tasks

We are looking for enthusiastic individuals to join the team delivering this exciting event. There are some set roles we would like to recruit people into, but you may be asked to do other things as needed. The roles are:

Activity hub volunteers

- Supporting the activity providers at each station.
- Welcoming groups as they arrive.
- Advising on the likely time needed to complete an activity, any potential wait if a station is busy, and directing groups to other nearby activities (maps will be provided).
- Escalating any issues to the lead team.
- We anticipate needing 2 people per station for this role to cover breaks.

Meet and greet volunteers

- You will be based at Belfast Grand Central Station and Titanic Belfast.
- Acting as a welcome point for groups arriving and directing them towards the nearest activity stations.

- Escalating any issues to the lead team.
- This will involve an earlier start and, once the game is underway, you will act as floating cover, ensuring breaks can be taken at busy stations.
- We anticipate needing 4 people for this role, 2 at each location.

First aiders

- While individual groups will be responsible for their own first aid, we want to recruit 2 qualified first aiders to the event volunteer team to provide additional cover if required.
- You will need to have a recognised external first aid qualification e.g St John's Ambulance, Emergnecy First Aid at Work, or higher.
- First aid kits will be provided by Girlguiding Ulster.
- You will be out and about throughout the event, moving between stations.
- You will escalate any issues encountered to the lead team.

It will be a very busy day which may be physically demanding. Some of the roles will require you to be outdoors and on your feet for most of the day, walking around the city. Please think about whether you feel this is manageable and, more importantly, enjoyable for you!

Time commitment

Team members would need to be available to arrive in Belfast city centre for 8am. The game runs until 4pm and then we will need to pack up.

The proposed itinerary is as follows:

- Saturday morning: arrive in Belfast city centre at 8am (RBAI; free all-day parking available) for the final event briefing, then head to activity stations or train and bus stations.
- Saturday afternoon: once the game ends, activity stations will be packed up and any equipment loaded up to go back to GGU.

Prior to the event, we will have a welcome event online to introduce ourselves and get to know you, on Wednesday 24 February at 7pm.

We also intend to have a WhatsApp community to allow discussions between you all, which will be live from our first online meeting until after the evaluation from the event is completed. This WhatsApp community will be used to keep in touch with everyone during the event and will be used to broadcast any important information, so you must be comfortable being part of it.

Skills needed

- Communication
- Time management
- Organisation
- Adaptability
- Friendly
- Approachable

You will need to commit to the itinerary above, follow instructions from the lead team, and remember that you are representing Girlguiding Ulster for the duration of the event and must behave accordingly.

Expenses

We will pay reasonable travel expenses of mileage, train or bus fares, and provide a lunch allowance of £6 on the day of the event.

Applications

If you have any questions about these roles, please contact Claire Eakin, ggu.north.claire@girlguidingulster.org.uk.
