At Girlguiding Ulster, girls and young women are at the heart of everything we do. As a girl-led organisation, we are committed to ensuring that their voices are heard and that they have meaningful opportunities to influence the experiences, programmes and opportunities we provide. The Girl Experience Coordinator will play a key role in establishing and embedding structures that ensure the voices of girls and young women are heard across Girlguiding Ulster through youth forums and meaningful participation, helping to influence future policy, strategy and organisational priorities.

The role will also support the development and delivery of personal and social development programmes, leadership opportunities and participatory initiatives for young people across Northern Ireland. It will focus on increasing youth engagement within Girlguiding Ulster and ensuring that young people's voices are central to the design, development and delivery of programmes that meet their needs and support the overall mission of the organisation.

Thank you for your interest in joining our team.

Thank you for your interest in the role of Girl Experience Co-ordinator with Girlguiding Ulster. At Girlguiding Ulster, we are proud to support more than 6,000 girls and young women across Northern Ireland, made possible through the commitment of over 1,500 dedicated volunteers. As a girl-led organisation, we are committed to ensuring that girls and young women are at the heart of everything we do, shaping their own experiences and influencing the future direction of our organisation.

This is an exciting opportunity to join an organisation that is ambitious for girls and young women and committed to making a positive impact in communities across Northern Ireland.

We are looking for someone who shares our commitment to creating meaningful opportunities for girls and young women to have their voices heard, develop their confidence and leadership skills, and shape the programmes and experiences we provide.

Our strategy is clear: to deliver an unrivalled girl-led experience, provide rewarding and flexible volunteering opportunities, and be an inclusive and impactful organisation. The Girl Experience Coordinator will play an important role in helping us achieve these ambitions by strengthening youth engagement across Girlguiding Ulster and ensuring that the voices of girls and young women help shape our programmes, policy, strategy and organisational priorities.

I hope this application pack gives you a clear sense of the role, our organisation, and the difference this position can make. If you are passionate about championing youth voice and creating opportunities for girls and young women to thrive, we would be love to hear from you.

Claire Flowers
CEO, Girlguiding Ulster

The closing date for applications is 12pm, on Friday 24 July 2026.

About Girlguiding Ulster

Girlguiding is the leading charity for girls and young women in the UK.

Thanks to the dedication and support of our amazing volunteers, we are active in every part of Northern Ireland, giving girls and young women a space where they can be themselves, have fun, build brilliant friendships, gain valuable life skills and make a positive difference to their lives and their communities. We build girls' confidence and raise their aspirations. We give them the chance to discover their full potential and encourage them to be a powerful force for good.

Rainbows are girls aged 4 to 7 and follow a programme through which they can take part in lots of different activities with girls their own age.

Brownies are girls aged 7 to 10 who become a member of a Six and follow a wide and varied programme. Brownies opens up a world of exciting challenges and the opportunity to try new things and to make brilliant friends.

Guides are girls aged 10 to 14 who are given the chance to explore their individual skills and abilities and try out new challenges as part of a team. Girls can get involved in anything from adventure sports to performing arts, travel and taking part in community action projects.

Rangers are girls aged 14 to 18 who follow a programme of interest badges, skills builders and awards. Girls can take part in amazing challenges, travel the world and develop skills across our six themes.

Girlguiding Ulster's Strategy

Our strategy provides a clear framework for Girlguiding Ulster's future direction, setting out the priorities that will shape our work and investment in the years ahead. It reflects our ambition to deliver an outstanding girl-led experience, strengthen and support volunteering, and build an organisation that is inclusive, impactful and sustainable.

An unrivalled, girl-led experience

We want to offer experiences that are fun, accessible and empowering so that they inspire more girls, young women and volunteers to join than ever before. So we're going to keep putting girls at the centre of everything we do. Every decision we make, big or small, should be led by our girls and young women.

Rewarding and flexible volunteering

We want volunteers to enjoy their time with us. We want volunteering to be flexible so it's easier for people to give their time. So, we're going to create opportunities that fit around people's lives. This will give more people the opportunity to share their talents and deliver great guiding to reach more girls and young women.

An inclusive and impactful organisation

We want Girlguiding to have an even bigger impact and influence on local communities and across Northern Ireland. So we're going to find fresh and exciting ways to welcome new girls and volunteers to make sure our community develops to reflect the world around us. We're going to make more people better aware of Girlguiding by proudly telling the world about our amazing achievements and hero girls' voices.

Building a sustainable and futureproof organisation

We want to make sure Girlguiding is fit for the future so we can continue to give girls great experiences. We will adapt how our organisation is designed and how we work to be the most effective organisation possible. We want our staff, volunteers and members to become One Team.

The CEO is responsible for the team of staff ensuring that the work they do follows the direction of the trustees.

Our Values
